FLOOR DEBATE

April 17, 2002 LB 931, 957, 1062, 1062A, 1290

I live in accord with it, and it makes life so easy for me and that's probably why I don't wear out and why I don't play out early in the afternoon, as so many of my colleagues do. I'm not a man with a divided mind and on this issue I am as single-minded as an individual can be. This is probably...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Time. You may continue.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. This is probably the most palatable amendment that I've offered. You all know that if you had your way you would rid the earth of the people on whose behalf I have been speaking--the ones I consider people but whom you all consider something lesser. So we are at loggerheads here. I do not believe you arrived at the position you hold by way of reasoning, so I cannot use reasoning to get you away from that position. I can only bludgeon and bludgeon and talk and talk, and just wear you out. Now it would be good if we did have more time in the session so we could do this more often. I only have two more days, exclusive of today, to do what I'm doing now if I choose to do it, and this is so much fun. It's difficult to imagine a day left in the session when I will not be passing it in the way that I'm doing here now. What else do we have on the agenda that is of interest to anybody? I really don't see anything, but I stand to be corrected. We're on LB 1062. I will not bother LB 1062A for reasons that will become apparent as that bill is discussed, but the rest of these...I see one more that I'm not going to mess with. Is Senator Coordsen here? You don't have to go to your mike. I just want Senator Coordsen to hear this. He has provided such splendid leadership on LB 1290 that there's no way I'm going to mess with that bill and not show proper respect for Senator Coordsen and the work that he has done. So I will have nothing to say on that bill other than to express my agreement with it and deep appreciation to Senator Coordsen for having brought it to where it is. And I hope he can continue this bill in its journey which, as far as I'm concerned, will be very smooth. LB 957, that's a bill that bankers and some others are interested in and I have an interest in that bill because I have an amendment I want to put on that bill. LB 931, LB 931, shall I stir the pot on LB 931, or shall I leave it unstirred? That remains to be seen. There are some things that might require
